BY SUSPENDED POLICE CHIEF JOHNSTON

$135,000 Lawsuit Filed Wednesday Against Elba Mayor Folsom

The weeks-old case of the suspension of Elba Police Chief M. W. Johnston by Mayor Robert Folsom took another facet Wednesday afternoon when Johnston filed a $135,000 lawsuit against Folsom. The suit charges Folsom did not comply with Alabama law in the matter and also that the mayor "illegally and wrongfully embarked upon a campaign of harassment, intimidation, and provocation and design to compel the plaintiff to resign or lose his office as Police Chief of the City of Elba."

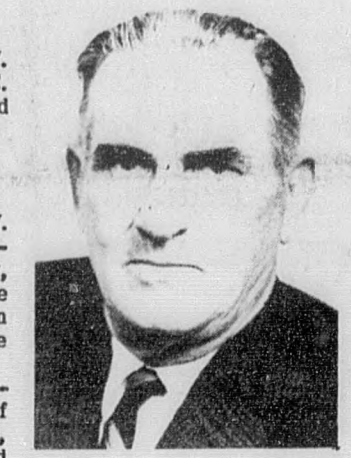

The suit contends that if Folsom is not restrained by the court, he will continue to prevent Johnston from performing his duties as Chief. It also charges Folsom with interfering with Johnston and other police officers of Elba in the performance of their duties, and that it all was a scheme to force Johnston out of office.

According to the suit, Folsom has wrongfully used his powers of office to keep Johnston from being paid. It also charges Folsom has failed to comply with Section 11-43-81 of the Code of Alabama, and therefore is without authority to prevent Johnston from serving as Chief of Police.

The suit asks for an injunction to restrain Folsom from unlawfully interfering with Johnston in the performance of his duties as Chief of Police, and from harassing, attempting to intimidate, or slandering Johnston. It asks for the $135,000 in compensatory and punitive damages and for cost of court. Johnston also has asked for a jury trial.

JOHNSTON

Following is a copy of the suit in its entirety:

"MEULLOYE W. JOHNSTON, Plaintiff
V.
ROBERT FOLSOM, Defendant

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR COFFEE COUNTY, ALABAMA AT ELBA

NO.

COMPLAINT

Comes now George E. Trawick, Jr., Attorney, and respectfully avers:

COUNT I

1. Plaintiff Meulloye W. Johnston is a bona fide resident citizen of Coffee County, Alabama and has been for the majority of his life except when in the military service of the United States.

2. Plaintiff served as a police officer of the City of Elba, Alabama from August, 1978 until he was appointed Chief of Police of said city

3. The Council of said city held its next regular meeting on August 15, 1978, at which time the defendant did not report the removal of plaintiff and the reasons of the defendant therefor to the Council and at which time the Council did not sustain the act of removal by the mayor by a majority vote of those elected to the Council as required by Section 11-43-81, Code of Alabama of 1975.

4. The defendant removed the plaintiff from said office without good cause.

5. Since the defendant commenced holding the office of Mayor of the City of Elba in October, 1976, the defendant has illegally and wrongfully embarked upon a campaign of harassment, intimidation, and provocation and design to compel the plaintiff to resign or lose his office as Police Chief of the City of Elba.

6. During his tenure as mayor the said defendant Robert Folsom has interfered with the plaintiff and other police officers of the City of Elba in the performance of their lawful duties or to force the plaintiff out of office.

7. The defendant has caused the salary of the plaintiff to be interrupted, and has wrongfully used the powers of defendant's office to keep the plaintiff from being paid in accordance with his contract with the City of Elba.

8. The defendant having failed to comply with Section 11-43-81, Code of Alabama of 1975 is without authority to prevent plaintiff from serving as Chief of Police of the City of Elba and from being paid for such services in accordance with his contract made with the Council of said city.

9. The defendant's acts were malicious, oppressive and were continuing with damages to the plaintiff as hereinafter set out. Unless defendant is restrained from continuing said unlawful acts by this Honorable Court, he will continue to perform his employment and duties as Chief of Police of the City of Elba

10. For damages, both compensatory and punitive, in the amount of One Hundred Thirty-Five Thousand Dollars.

11. For costs of court and general relief.

12. Plaintiff demands trial by jury of his action and claims for damages.

GEORGE E. TRAWICK, Plaintiff's Attorney

Council Gives Cable TV Deadline

A special meeting of the Elba City Council was held Tuesday night to handle some routine business passed over recently during the heated debates concerning the suspension of Police Chief M. W. Johnston.

It took twenty minutes to approve the minutes of the last three meetings, including the August 1st, August 7th and August 15th meetings. Councilman Mike Russell reported that the Elba Jaycees would assist with the survey on extending the city limits if the city would defray the estimated $50 of expenses. This was approved.

Acting Police Chief Max Rayborn reported the police department was now running smoother than in recent weeks. He noted that personnel files were missing as well as one or two fines partial payment receipt books.

Mayor Robert Folsom reported work had been done on patching some pot holes in the streets, and it took 4-5/8 tons of seal to do the work. Folsom reported city crews had successfully drained the "frog pond" at the school and had hauled some dirt into washed areas near the middle school.

Folsom reported to councilman that city crews would begin working on Brookdale drainage soon and would get some requested dirt in James Spurlin's yard Wednesday. This was to repair damage done by city trucks.

The council heard a request from School Superintendent Elmer Taylor for the city to continue giving the $3,000 a month assistance to the school. It was unanimously approved for the next twelve months.

An ordinance with General Telephone was approved. It would give Elba 1% of the gross revenues rather than the $600 as received in the past.

The council instructed City Clerk Jack Prescott to mail a certified letter to the home office of the company operating the Elba Cable TV and inform them the franchise would be revoked if a serviceman was not located in Elba within the next ten days. The franchise requires a local serviceman at all times.

A three-step pay scale was approved for all city employees. It set the step three or one year salary at the wage currently being earned by the employees.

Acting Police Chief Max Rayborn requested that the budgeted salary for a patrolman who had resigned be divided between the existing police officers. No action was taken on this.

Folsom was asked about a promise to repair damage to a septic tank damaged by city trucks or hook the resident on city sewage as requested. The council then voted to do this work immediately.

ORANGES

If the oranges in the market are a greenish tinge during July and August, they are really mature. This "greening" occurs when the weather gets warmer and ground temperatures increase, causing the chlorophyll to return to the skin. Regardless of outside color, oranges are never picked until completely ripe.

Mrs. Evelyn White of Rt. 1, Jack, Alabama, announces the engagement and forthcoming marriage of her daughter, Darlene Frances, to V. Linn Welch of Brundidge, Alabama.

You and Jere Beasley can do something about sky-high utility bills!

Jere Beasley is the only candidate for Governor who has ever lifted a finger to fight Alabama Power Company.

Look at the record:

As Acting Governor, Jere froze utility rates and called for the first audit of the power company's books and operations.

- He formed a blue-ribbon panel to study the utility program and make specific recommendations. From this study came the Governor's utility package which was passed into law.
- He proposed legislation to reorganize the Public Service Commission and put teeth into utility regulation.
- He proposed legislation to give your Governor the right to roll-back utility rates.
- Most of this badly-needed legislation has been killed by rich and powerful forces lobbying for more privileges and higher profits for the power company. These same forces are trying to elect their man as Governor.

What can you do?

You have the power to elect the next Governor. Jere Beasley is asking for the chance to place utility rates at a lower level. His first action as Governor will be to move to abolish the weak and ineffective Public Service Commission and replace it with a regulatory body responsible to the Governor with the power to roll back utility rates. Jere will "make the power company sweat for a change." Elect Jere Beasley Governor. You and I have sweated long enough.

Elect Jere Beasley Governor

Donna Bragg Is Bride Of Richard Veal

The marriage of Donna Sue Bragg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Bragg, to Richard Doyle Veal, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Veal of Panama City, Florida, was solemnized on August 7, at 4:00 p.m. at the home of the bride in Elba. Dr. Judson Vaughn, pastor of the Elba First Baptist Church, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of the immediate families and special friends.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a candlelight dress of chintilly lace. The dress featured a round neckline with a wide collar and long sleeves of Brussels lace. The dress fell gracefully into a three tiered train, each of which was highlighted with Brussels lace. Her Juliet cap and veil was embellished with Brussels lace and pearls. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of tuberoses, baby's breath, lace-trimmed with trailing satin ribbons and a large white orchid.

Howard L. Foreman, Elba, served the groom as best man and John H. Foreman was the usher. Organ selections which included traditional wedding marches were rendered by Mrs. Kimmie Dorsey for the ceremony and reception.

Vows were exchanged in the living room before an impressive background. A wrought-iron archway, woven with palm leaves contained large pink satin bows at focal points. Large split-leaved Philodendron were on either side of the archway. The kneeling bench in front also had large pink satin bows on either end. A large arrangement of full mums, carnations, gladioli and greenery on a white pedestal in the archway completed the beautiful setting.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a formal gown of mint green chiffon featuring an empire waist, and a white carnation corsage adorned her dress. Mrs. Lois Whitley, grandmother of the bride, wore a melon chiffon dress featuring butterfly sleeves and an empire waist and her corsage was of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the dining room of the Bragg home. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Bragg, and Miss Jenny Hulsan registered the guests at a round registry table in the entrance hall. The table was covered with white satin with an overlay of linen edged in lace with large Area Palms on either side.

The bride's table was covered with a cloth of imported Belgium linen and lace. The two-tiered wedding cake was decorated with spun sugar and pink roses, topped with a miniature bride and groom. On either side of the cake, silver candelabra held long pink tapers and a large arrangement of full mums, carnations, gladioli and baby's breath. Cake was served by Mrs. Audrey Jacobs, aunt of the bride, and pink punch was served by Mrs. Leo Foreman from a crystal punch bowl encircled with greenery and baby's breath.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Veal

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Veal are residing at their home in Panama City, Fl.

FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT, NOT BIGGER GOVERNMENT!

VOTE for the people's full time Senator!
DR. WALLACE MILLER
Alabama State Senate District 25

Dear Fellow Citizens:

This is Wallace Miller, candidate for State Senator.

Common sense and hard work will be used in looking after your interest in state government.

We have got to work for better government—not bigger government. I am against passage of any law unless it is in the best public interest. The fewer laws passed, the better off we are.

Wallace Miller will support legislation to reduce the length of time the Legislature meets.

Wallace Miller will continue to work in the legislative process to try and reduce the cost of utilities.

Our children's education must not be used as a political football.

When you elect me State Senator again, Wallace Miller will use common sense and hard work to help solve the problems facing all of us.

Thanks Always

Back To School Safety

School begins in many parts of the state this month. As youngsters start giving thought to the Three R's, it's a good time for all of us to think about their health and safety, says

David W. Carter, Executive Director of the Southeast Alabama Health Systems Agency. Alabama law requires that all children must be immunized against seven childhood diseases before being allowed to enter school.

"Unfortunately," says Carter, "with the miraculous advances in modern medicine, some parents mistakenly believe polio, measles, mumps, diphtheria, tetanus, and whooping cough have been conquered. They have not."

Medical science has been able to provide protection against these potentially deadly and crippling diseases, but the protection can only be obtained through immunization. A quick, sharp prick of a needle now can prevent future death, heart or brain damage, blindness, hearing loss, or other incapacitation.

"In addition," adds Carter, "the roadways will once again be filled with children on foot, on bicycles, and motorcycles," headed to and from school.

"In many instances, they have their minds on things other than traffic and their own safety."

Motorists should be especially watchful for children now that schools are about to open. "As parents, and adults, we must take these responsibilities for the safety and well-being of our children."

"Taking time and exercising extra caution is so much easier than trying to mend an injured or diseased child," adds Carter.

Fees At ESJC To Remain Same

Fees for college credit transfer courses at Enterprise State Junior College will NOT be increased this school year, according to B.A. Forrester, president.

"We intend to keep our fees at a minimum as long as possible by cutting expenses in other areas," Forrester said. "This we feel is in line with the basic theory of junior colleges, that emphasizes making quality education available to all citizens at a price all can afford."

A full-time student still pays only $67.50 per quarter with no additional fees for science courses, etc. Part-time tuition is $13.50 for the first hour plus $6 for each additional hour scheduled.

"The last time fees were increased at ESJC was in 1969. What else can you buy today for the same price you paid ten years ago and still get the high quality?"

Forrester added.

Fall quarter registration at ESJC is scheduled Sept. 5 and 6 with classes beginning Thursday, Sept. 7, 1978.

Students planning to attend evening classes at Enterprise, Samson or Ozark will register at the ESJC campus Tuesday, Sept. 5 from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m. Day students will register from 8:30 a.m. till 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 6.

Views From The Pressbox

By Ricki Mularz, Sports Editor

The prep football season is here and tomorrow night the Elba Tigers will begin their season against the Pike County Bulldogs of Brundidge. Coach Mack Wood and his staff have been hard at work for several weeks trying to mold 36 teenagers into a winning football team and tomorrow night we'll get to watch the results.

The '78 edition of the Tigers will be a young team sprinkled with a few proven veterans. Back to anchor the defense will be Russ Wood, Greg Ellenburg and Gary Brushshaw, while the offensive keys will be Wood, Ellenburg and Marty Marler.

If the Tigers can avoid injuries they should have a good year, and I urge all Elba fans to turn-out in big numbers this week in Brundidge. And also, don't be too embarrassed to cheer, the players deserve your support!

Most of the area teams begin play this week and there are several local teams I'll be keeping an eye on. Andalusia has won the Class 2A title two straight years and I heard last week that this year's squad is "without a doubt" the best ever. The Bulldogs had a night scrimmage last week and everyone who saw it reported their execution was perfect. Oh, well, what else is new?

Coach Wayne Purvis' Coffee Springs Golden Bears have won 14 straight regular season games and the Geneva County power could keep that streak going for quite some time. Among the returnees in the Bear's camp are Darrell Tyler, who gained 1,337 yards last season from his fullback post, and John David Weeks, who rushed for 1,203 yards from his halfback position. Also returning is quarterback David Tyler, a gatty performer who is just as comfortable "running over" tacklers as "running around" them. The Bears face a tough schedule that includes Samson and powerful Brantley. If Coffee Springs can post a 10-0 record in '78 there won't be any stoppings on en route to a state title!

Opp has a senior oriented club that has been big winners the past couple of years. The bobcats must face the usual group of regional games, but besides that have a couple of brothers. Coach Randy Griffin has moved Andalusia to the last game, so he must plan on it being for all the marbles.

Another group of players and cheerleaders that have been working hard are the kids involved with Little League football. The teams are practicing every afternoon and the 7th grade cheerleaders have been getting ready since tryouts last school year. All the boys and girls deserve support of parents and fans.

Well, Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator has come out of retirement and beginning this week will again venture to predict the outcome of area football games. The first week's are based strictly on last seasons results and sometimes aren't of expert quality. Oh, well, here goes

Elba - Brundidge
The Tigers have some good players, but not enough to make their season opener a laugher. Brundidge will be sky-high and ready to pull an upset, but it won't happen this week.
Elba 19 Brundidge 13

Kinston - Dozier
Kinston has a very big team and their coach is expecting a lot of wins. Dozier is always unpredictable, but I think they'll have enough to squeak by the Bulldogs!
Dozier 18 Kinston 16

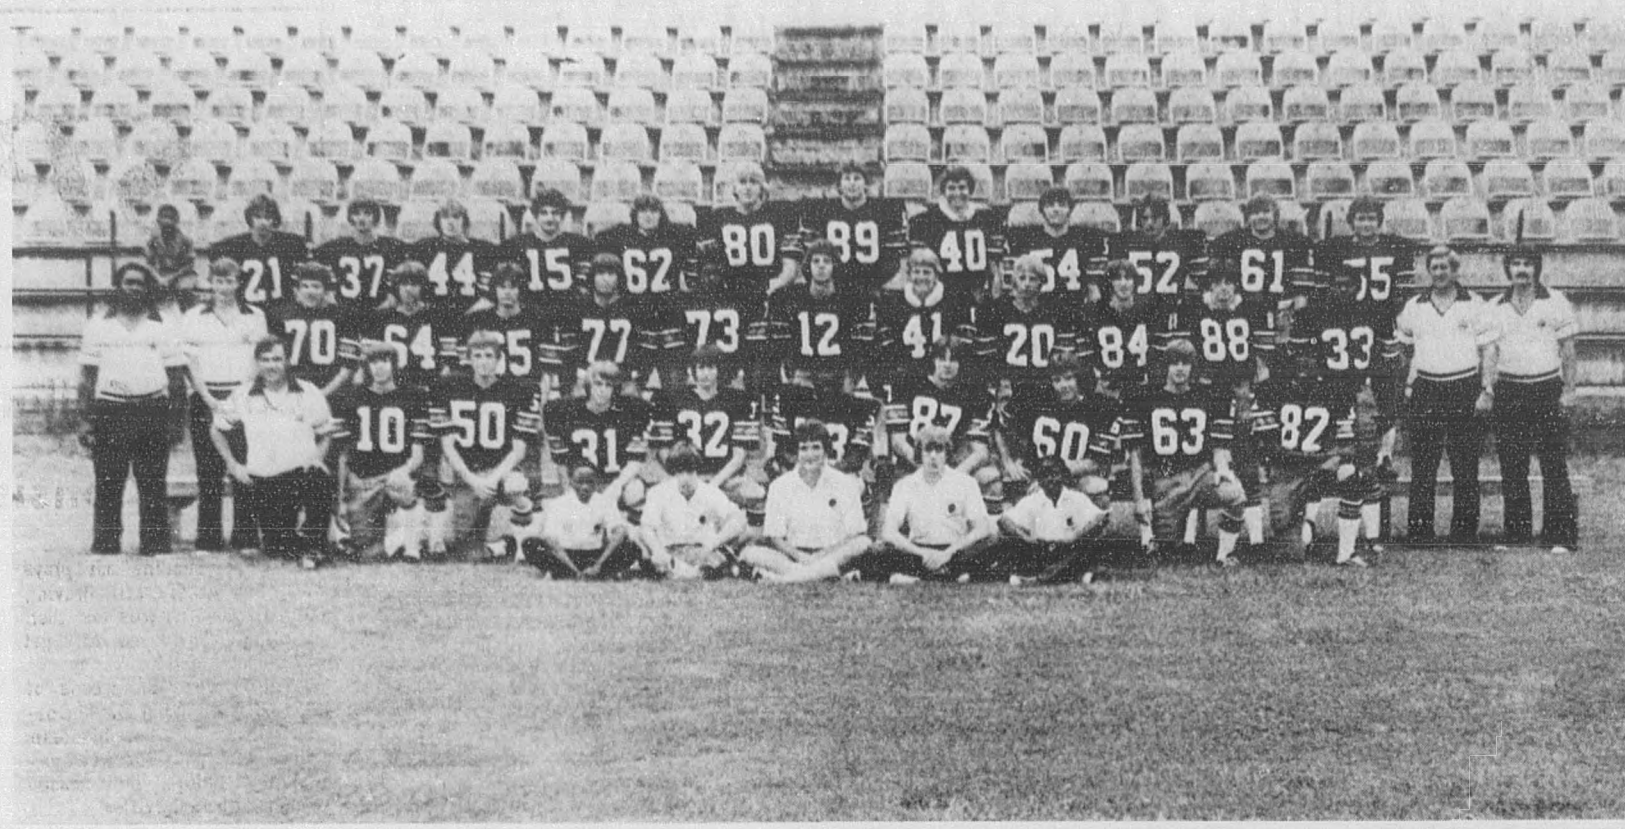

Brantley - McKenzie
I've heard that they've been working hard in Brantley to get ready for a tough schedule. The "tough" part starts next week!
Brantley 38 McKenzie 6

Coffee Springs - Samson
The Golden Bears need a win in their season opener to get them ready for next week's rematch with Brantley. It will be a nail-biter, but I think the Bears will claw through!
Coffee Springs 16 Samson 6

Other picks include:
Opp 26 Headland 7

Elba Tigers Open Grid Season Friday Night In Brundidge

The Elba Tigers open their 1978 football season tomorrow (Friday) night when they journey to Brundidge to battle

Kinston Bulldogs

Open Season

Against Dozier

The Kinston Bulldogs will kick-off their 1978 football season tonight (Thursday) when they host a strong Dozier squad. Game time for the Class A match-up is 7:30 p.m. Kinston, under the direction of Coach Larry Davis, struggled to a 2-8 record last season, but a bevy of returning starters have the veteran coach looking forward to the approaching season.

"One of the main things going for us is our experience," said Coach Davis, "most of the boys played on last year's team that went 2-8 and they're ready to get revenge."

The experience Coach Davis speaks of will come in the form of 15 lettermen. They include quarterbacks Darryl Wilkerson and Scotty Hunko, halfbacks Johnny Wiggins, and David Reeves and fullback Steve Weeks. Wilkerson is the little man in the backfield at 5-10, 160-pounds, while Reeves and Weeks both have good size at over 175-pounds.

Line men returning are Chris Weeks, Tony Courson, Mike Carnley, Kris Bowden, Travis Perry, Jimmy Rogers, Scott Sanson, Mark Parker, Orlie Reeves and Joey Williams. Weeks and Bowden are both big men, weighing 206 and 230, respectively as are Perry (195) and Reeves (192).

"We're bigger than we were last year," added Coach Davis, "and all those big line men will be around for two more years. We will again run the ball most of the time but we can pass when we need to. Things are going to be looking up this year!"

the Pike County Bulldogs. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

"Last week we had one good practice, two average practices and two poor practices," reported Coach Wood, "and I'm afraid we're not going to be ready physically or mentally. I hope the boys realize what it will take to beat a team as good as Brundidge. They are bigger, faster and stronger than us and they've got a balanced attack. I guarantee you they'll be sky high!"

"Offensively," stated Wood, "we are looking pretty fair. We had some good blocking and some good running, but we also had some poor blocking. I don't know what we'll do on defense until the ballgame. We've got 3 or 4 boys starting that have never played in a game and they will have to grow-up in a hurry."

In closing, Coach Wood said, "I'd like for everyone to drive over to Brundidge and support us. We'll appreciate your help."

"I Have Strived To Employ Qualified, Professional Personnel Who Care And Feel As I Do About The People Of Coffee County. I Have Been Successful In This To The Point That We Have The Highest Qualified, Best Trained Staff In Coffee County's History."

Brantley Bulldogs To Face Rebuilding Season

For the past three years the Brantley Bulldogs have dominated Class A football in south Alabama, as is evident by their combined record of 33 wins and 3 losses. However, this season the Bulldogs of Coach Mike Sasser have only 23 players out for football including four ninth-graders and one eighth-grader. It looks like a rebuilding year for the green and white!

"We are not ready to play yet," said Coach Sasser, "we need to get some more players in a recent interview, "we have so few boys out we can't scrimmage like we need to."

"We really don't have a strength," stated Sasser, "but we'll be okay. We had to move Tony Pynes from fullback to guard to help the line, and he's done a fine job. I think we've got five good backs in Timmy Hall, David Wood, Haws - qb and Lavon Christen - wingback."

"I hope our defense will be strong again this year," said Sasser, "We're improving daily and return our entire defense secondary. I don't think our defense will give up many points."

In closing, Coach Sasser reported, "I'm looking for a tough game with McKenzie. Everybody on our schedule thinks they can beat us and we'll have to be ready!"

Little League

Football To Start

On Sept. 9

The Little League football season for boys in grades 4-7 will start on Saturday, Sept. 9, when Elba hosts the Opp Golden Rams.

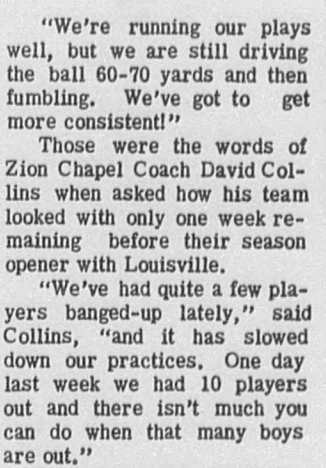

The team, coached by Byron Hodge, Bruce Nelson and Max Fuller, will play a 10 game schedule against teams from Opp, Brundidge and New Brantley. The team has cheerleaders chosen last year at tryouts and the young ladies will cheer at all games.

The complete schedule is: Sept. 9 . . . Golden Rams . . . in Elba; Sept. 16 . . . Blue Devils . . . in Opp; Sept. 23 . . . Red Barons . . . in Elba; Sept. 30 . . . New Brantley . . . in New Brantley; Oct. 7 . . . Blue Devils . . . in Elba; Oct. 14 . . . Golden Rams . . . in Opp; Oct. 21 . . . Blue Devils . . . in Elba; Oct. 28 . . . Red Barons . . . in Opp; Nov. 4 . . . New Brantley . . . in Elba; and Nov. 11 . . . Brundidge . . . in Elba.

The fourth and fifth grade team will play 4 games -- Sept. 30 . . . at New Brantley, Oct. 7 . . . at Brundidge, Nov. 4 . . . New Brantley, in Elba, and Nov. 11 . . . Brundidge in Elba.

Any boys who wish to play should contact a coach and must present a birth certificate.

Coach Collins Reports Rebels "Need To Be Consistent"

Coach David Collins

"We're running our plays well, but we are still driving the ball 60-70 yards and then fumbling. We've got to get more consistent!"

Those were the words of Zion Chapel Coach David Collins when asked how his team looked with only one week remaining before their season opener with Louisville.

"We've had quite a few players banged-up lately," said Collins, "and it has slowed down our practices. One day last week we had 10 players out and there isn't much you can do when that many boys are out."

Collins reported all the injuries were minor and that he expected everyone to be ready for the opening game.

"Offensively," stated Collins, "our execution is not what it needs to be. Corky Ward is running the ball real well and we have a new boy from Maryland named Keith Costner who is looking good at running-back. Byron Foley and Allan Smith are both looking good catching the ball."

The entire line received praise for their hard work, including Mike Ammons, Richard Bedsole, Chris Sanders, Wendell McWaters, Boyd Deal, Kim Leverett and Don Senn.

"Our offensive and defensive lines both average between 160-180," reported the Rebel Coach, "and we're expecting them to do a good job during the season."

"We've still got one week left before our first game," said Collins, "and we've got a couple of young boys that still need a lot of work. Our execution is our main priority right now and except for our timing I'd say we're running right on schedule. We'll fill in a few holes this week and next week we'll just tune-up for Louisville."

Vote For And Re-Elect

MARVIN L. McILWAIN

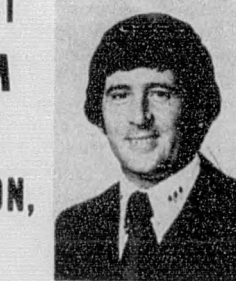

Coroner Of Coffee County—Elba Div.

During the past three years and seven months, I have served as coroner of Coffee County and have done so to the best of my ability. The coroner's office, although thought by many to be an insignificant post, can be and is a very important part of our law enforcement arm: government. In my past term, I have learned a great deal more about the office and what it involves. This in turn has given me a greater insight as to what should and can be done concerning the duties of coroner. I have gained a working knowledge of the office and have established a line of communication with all agencies involved with the performance of the duties of coroner. I can honestly state to you, the people who elected me, that I have done a good job as coroner, and I want to continue to serve you in this post.

As a family man, I firmly believe every child should have the opportunity for an equal and good education. As the father of two children, I am honestly concerned about the educational system of Coffee County.

Married the former Beverly Hornsby.
Two children—Beather age 3, Troy age 5.

Charlie Graddick

Charlie Graddick has devoted his life to the prosecution of criminals. He has fought criminals aggressively, convicting over 95% of those he has tried. Now more than ever, we need a man of convictions as our next Attorney General. Graddick's winning record makes him the man of convictions.

Graddick on plea bargaining: "I do not plea bargain with murderers, robbers, dope pushers and burglars. These criminals have two alternatives: plead guilty and go to prison or plead not guilty and face a jury verdict." Since the start of Graddick's get-tough no plea bargaining policy, the career criminal can no longer make a "deal."

Graddick on career criminals: "In Alabama, career criminals have learned they will probably not go to prison. And if they do, they will serve little time. We must set stiff sentences for career criminals. The career criminal must be punished. If he is a career criminal, he can fight and beat the repeat offender in the courtroom. With the career criminal laws on our families can live without fear."

Graddick on capital punishment: "I believe the death penalty is a necessary punishment for our most vicious and cruel killers. Graddick has convicted more murderers than any other prosecutor. As Attorney General, Graddick will guarantee that the monopolies don't make monopoly-size profits."

Charlie and his wife Corinne have two sons, Charlie, Jr., and Herndon.

Julian McPhillips

"There is a crisis of confidence in Alabama today," stated former Assistant Attorney General Julian McPhillips in formally declaring his candidacy for the office of Attorney General.

Crossing the state by "whistle-stop" tour to emphasize his home base in 4 different sections of Alabama, McPhillips addressed crowds in Cullman, Birmingham, Montgomery and Mobile.

"Alabama is besieged by crime, soaring utility bills, unemployment, high taxes, an outdated constitution, and the most corrupt and ineffective legislature in state history," said McPhillips while speaking from the steps of his childhood home in Cullman.

"That is why we need a strong, hard-working and honest attorney general who will run the office in a non-political manner," he added, "and I know I meet that description."

At a Birmingham news conference, McPhillips stated that he had found overwhelming support since he resigned last June as Assistant Attorney General to explore candidacy and enter private law practice.

"We have risen to the top of voter preference polls and we have put together an organization that is second to none in the attorney general's race," stated McPhillips, who in the past 10 months has driven thousands of miles a month while traveling in every county of the state.

"Far more Alabamians are robbed of far more money at the end of a pen than at the end of a gun," said McPhillips, who first gained statewide recognition as a fighter of white collar-crimes and was responsible for a record-breaking $500,000 in judgments or settlements for Alabama residents and charities.

Speaking on the steps of the capital in Montgomery and pointing towards it, McPhillips added, "This Legislature is responsible for much of the white-collar crime. I'm talking about both by its action and its inaction."

"There is so much wheeling and dealing going on here it would make your head spin. It's harmful enough in the Legislature, but if brought into the Attorney General's office where considerations of justice are at stake, it would be devastating. And it would further reduce public faith in our system of government."

"Fighting high utility bills, consumer and environmental protection, improving labor management problems, prosecution of corrupt governmental officials, promoting the free enterprise system and proper use of the taxpayer's dollar are other planks in McPhillips' platform."

An All-American heavyweight wrestling champion at Princeton, McPhillips grew up in the North Alabama towns of Cullman and Guntersville but as the son of a minister, he has also lived in Montgomery, Birmingham and Pell City. His ancestral roots are six generations deep in the counties of Mobile, Escambia and Greene and he has cousins in most of the counties of Alabama.

"I feel experience to work," said McPhillips, "I know the ropes of the office and can make the work."

Commissioners Set New Rules For Farm Center

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, August 28, at the Courthouse in Elba, and following a meeting with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the commission voted to stop renting the building to entities that were not farm-related. The commission presented fi-to Mr. Burch and the other vehicle to Dowling Truck and Tractor.

Mr. Johnson, from the Cross Trails Regional Library, informed the commission that he was seeking support for the library service. Johnson stated his organization served resident. The army site in Enterprise and said the work would require a bulldozer and a motor grader. The commission instructed Mullins to coordinate with the National Guard specialists and check on the possibility of using Guard equipment.

There is a need to cut down on the number of employees in the department, Johnson said. "We are trying to provide good service to the people of this region," he said. "We are trying to do it with the fewest number of employees possible."

back the non-harm related events," said Judge James L. Sawyer, "and we also need to cut back in all areas. We can't continue like this!"

Judge Connor expressed appreciation for the support of the Regional Alcoholism Council, also presented the communi- cation with a financial request for continued support.

Mr. Martin Wyatt, of the Regional Alcoholism Council, also presented the communi- cation with a financial request for continued support.
